

Complaints Procedure

Our aim is to provide a first class service and to do everything we can to ensure you are satisfied. If you feel that we have fallen short of this standard and you wish to complain, we ask that you first telephone the person who deals with your matter and explain that you are dissatisfied with an aspect of the service you have received.

If you remain unhappy with the way your complaint has been dealt with after speaking to that person, then you should set out your complaint in writing by email to: hello@renthappily.co.uk. As an online agency, we encourage you to write to us via email, or contact us by phone on 0117 321 0503. However, you can also reach us by post at the address below (note that we cannot guarantee the same response time, as the post at this address is not monitored every day):

In order to resolve your complaint, we would ask that you include the following information and evidence, if applicable:

- I. An outline of your complaint explaining why you feel that we have fallen short of our first class service;
- II. What you would like us to do to resolve it;
- III. Any specific details that you feel would assist us with resolving your complaint. Including, but not limited to:
 - Names of person you have spoken to in connection with the complaint
 - Time(s) and Date(s) of the incidence(s);
 - Telephone number(s) and or Address(es) you have used to contact us;
 - Any written correspondence in connection with your complaint;
 - Any other document in support of your complaint.

On receipt of a complaint, we will investigate the issue(s) you have raised on your complaint fully and respond to you accordingly. The timescales for dealing with a complaint are as follows:

- You will receive an 'acknowledgement of receipt' of your complaint from us within 3 working days of receipt of your complaint if addressed by email. When using our postal address, we will endeavour to acknowledge your letter within 10 working days.

- Within 10 working days of the acknowledgement, you will receive a full response.
- If we are unable to resolve the matter within the 10 working days as stated above, we will provide you with reasons why we could not meet this time frame and provide you with an estimate of when a full response will be received.
- After our final written response, we may deem the complaint closed. If we deem the matter closed then we reserve the right not to enter into any further correspondence.

We are members of the Property Redress Scheme. If you remain unhappy with the response received from us and have exhausted our complaints procedure, you can contact the Property Redress Scheme to ask them to investigate your complaint. In order to take your complaint to The Property Redress Scheme you must first have done as follows:

- You have waited 8 weeks from the date of your written complaint to us for a response; and
- It is still within 12 months from our last communication with you regarding this complaint, or from when we should have replied to you about it.

The Property Redress Scheme is a government approved Redress Scheme who resolves complaints between Members and their consumers. The complainant must have exhausted the Member's internal complaints procedure and remain dissatisfied with the Member's response. The Property Redress Scheme is free to use for the complainant and further information and guidance on how to resolve complaints is available via the PRS website.
